Hotel Indigo: Spain Barcelona

Deep inside Hotel Indigo are kind and ready-to-serve staff, vibrant coloured slides, pools and mouth watering food. Staff were generous, humble and hard working people always eager to help. I personally picked this hotel because of the wonderful reports and images as on the website.

Food and drinks were unbelievably extremely appetizing and scrumptious, I was satisfied and the customers around me were <sup>too</sup>. The menu ranges from different meats and drinks up to the ~~vegans~~ vegan and Halal Halal goods. I would recommend lots of people to eat and stay here.

Out in the water parks, the outstanding and peaceful slides and attractions always catches everyone's eyes. Fair and entertaining carnival games have awesome prizes even if you lose. The clean and crystal clear pools are as clean as a ruby and as lastly clear as glass.

Lastly, the cheap and affordable ticket fees are so cheap, anyone could afford them. I saved up so much money with the 60% winter discount and the free drink with the first-time trial pass. After all

Turn Around, Don't Drain

Reporter: Emma J. Corcor

During Autumn and Winter, the UK is hit with storm s, that comes from across the west Atlantic.

However, this Autumn this UK has been hit by an extratropical storm called "The Babet".

The Babet Storm was caused by warm moisture that <sup>built</sup> up from the bay of Biscaya before being tapped over the UK due to high pressure system across the Scandinavia.

This disastrous storm caused flooding that occurred in the eastern side of Scotland.

The Babet Storm caused heavy rain in the east of Scotland, leading to rivers breaching their riverbanks that led to flash floods.

Submerged.

The floods submerged homes, roads, playgrounds, loss of life and property. Luckily, not that many people died, at least seven.

Lots of innocent people didn't listen to their local leaders and stayed in their flooded area.

Thoughtfully, authorities gave out warning on news and alerts on phones.

At the moment, rescuers have been rescuing both animal and humans, whose homes are flooded.

The main question is "When will this flooding ever stop?"

Meteorological office, Storm Babet has passed through the Eastern coast to Scotland, but the weather in the UK remains unstable over weeks with heavy rain fall.

The End

10. To write a Narrative - My dream holiday.

My dream holiday somewhere I've never been to is Ghana in East Africa. I would love to go there because there are beautiful sights everywhere and it is my home country. I would bring family, Abedi Pele (if not already in Ghana) and the whole Ghanaian national team to represent our country. ✓

On my first day in Ghana, I would like to learn how to weave Kente (Kente is clothes in the Ghanaian language). It is something I have never done before and it seems an exciting activity to do. Even though I have done it in the UK, a famous quote says 'There is a first time for everything' and I dream to do that in Ghana. ✓

On the second day, I would like to learn how to read and write Twi (Ghanaian language). Even though I know how to do it already, I want to learn more about it because it is in my home country after all. This is one of the most, if not the most important thing to do when you get to Ghana because if you don't, people will yell at you. ✓

Monday

Today, was a school day but it was extra boring because I had an assignment due. It was a Science assignment. The clever weather forecast man said it will amazingly snow half a foot which means no school. Yay! Surprisingly, when I woke up out of bed it hadn't even snowed a 4 inch. I was so worried, ... but I still had time I set my alarm clock for 7am I went to pick up the phone for Rowley (best friend) to help me, but when I saw the time I was doomed. I <sup>curiously</sup> stomped up the stairs leading up to Rodrick's (my brother) room. When I came in his room he had a huge, nasty grin on his face.

At school, the loud speaker me (Greg) to come to his office my mum was also there. I knew I was in trouble. Mr Roy said to me if my grades don't get better I'll go to Summer School. My Science assignment is due tomorrow, but I didn't feel like doing it. Luckily my mum did it for me I passed.

Tuesday

-Last Day of School

Today, was as usual we had to do the assignments we missed out on, in the afternoon we have a massive party. All the teachers leave even Mr Roy. Once, all the teachers left all the bad guys vandalised the school. For example Bruce Bogtrotter took a ruby red spray paint bottle and sprayed on the lockers WE HATE SCHOOL!

Wednesday

-Swimming

Today, I found a trick. When my dad drops me off at the freezing pool I dive into the pool for a little while then ask the coach to go toilet. My plan had worked so far, but when I went in there it was about 0°C. I had a plan B though, I could wrap myself in toilet paper. When I came in the pool my dad was there he had come an hour early. I am grounded.

Thursday

-Summer Holidays

Today, was the first day of the Summer Holidays. Of course, I played video games but from a little help from Rowley.

L.O: To write a diary entry.

17th April Sun

Dear Diary, Today was so confusing like because everyone kept on asking me so many questions that my head was going to EXPLODE! Fortunately, my head didn't explode anyway. I lost my rash in a stupid free hole and that night I couldn't go to bed but then it got even worse because it <sup>could have</sup> been any tree but Nooo it just HAD to be a Mulberry tree! I never thought something so horrible would <sup>happen</sup> happen to me. Now I feel even so lonely.

Eventually, I went to sleep last night but days just feel like they last forever and everything looks old and dull to me without Rash. I don't even know if I can go on. Oh wait, tomorrow's a school day and I have to put my clothes out. Afterward, I'm going to write tomorrow so ... BYE Diary! ☹️

18th April Mon

Dear Diary, Today more questions were coming at me and making my head hurt. Anyway, today I got brought Miss Maynard's stupid little eyes again she just went blab blab : blab like she was never going to stop talking it was THE WORST! I had to stay there until first break began. But if I'm being honest I'd rather stay in there for the hole of break than go outside because I really don't want to meet the awkwardness of Aileen and ugh Fiona. Unfortunately, Miss Maynard isn't that cruel and she sent me out side. Ugh. Class wasn't that good either all the really happened we had math and english then more school stuff then I went <sup>home</sup> home so I'll write later so BYE Diary!
